

Samuel Medina Bio

Samuel Medina, I'm 33 years old I'm from Santurce (San Juan) Puerto Rico moved to Chicago give or take about 10 years ago to work in the hospitality industry. It was through cooking and making coquito in the holidays with my grandma that I fell in love with making cocktails. In the last ten years I've opened and operated numerous award winning and worldwide recognized bars in the city of Chicago all while representing my culture through making cocktails, especially coquito!
